

IMPORTANT UPDATE / COVID-19 (Coronavirus):

At the HACFM, the health and wellbeing of our staff, residents, program participants and business partners is of the utmost importance to us. Therefore, we will be making informed business decisions based on health and safety guidelines from federal, state and local public health officials provided to limit the spread of COVID-19.

HACFM has decided to significantly limit our direct contact with the public and, effective Wednesday, March 18, 2020, and until otherwise posted, our offices will be closed to the general public. HACFM staff will be working our regularly scheduled hours while continuing to serve our clients through electronic means of communication and correspondence mailed.

As the information provided on COVID -19 continues to evolve, we reserve the right to take more aggressive actions of protection for our clients, residents and staff. Regular updates of any proposed changes will be communicated through our website.
